

The American public deserves integrity in the media; owners "forcing" their TV stations to run blatantly partisan pieces prior to elections amounts to manipulation at best, fraud at worst. It demeans the whole field of TV journalism.